

31 March 2009

Panel Discussion on Wales as a location for German companies in cooperation with

from right to left
Mr Kaemmerling, German Ambassador, Mr Jones, Mr Grubb, Deputy First Minister, Dr Atenstaedt

Dinner with the First Minister for Wales

In cooperation with the German Embassy and International Business Wales GERMAN INDUSTRY UK organised a Panel Discussion on Wales as a location for German companies on 31 March at the National Assembly for Wales in Cardiff.

German Ambassador HE Georg Boomgaarden and Deputy First Minister Ieuan Wyn Jones AM welcomed the participants.

The speakers Dr Bernd Atenstaedt, Chief Executive of GERMAN INDUSTRY UK, Laurence Grubb, Managing Director of AKG UK Ltd, Arnold Kaemmerling, Chairman of Carl Kaemmerling International Ltd and Alun Jones, Managing Director of Faun Municipal Vehicles Ltd talked about their companies and pointed out the advantages of Wales as a business location.

Following the Panel Discussion the speakers were guests at a dinner hosted by the First Minister for Wales Rt Hon Rhodri Morgan AM and at a supper on 1 April on the occasion of the Football International Germany vs Wales hosted by the Deputy First Minister.